

VERBOSE

General Rules:

- Teams should comprise of three members. One who speaks for the motion, one who speaks against and another research person. The research person is to furnish all the information to both the speakers.
- Time allotted for each speaker is 4 minutes. (3+1). Anyone exceeding time limit will be penalized.
- Objection against one's speech comes as a part of his or her speech. However questions may be asked to the speaker on the basis of what he or she has said. At the most 2 questions will be entertained. The speaker will be given a minute to decide the answer. He/she may consult the research person if required.
- Teams are judged on content, style and strategy. Style covers the way a speaker speaks. Strategy deals the way the speaker addresses the issues, the structure of his/her speech and how he/she defends his stance.
- Participants from institutions having uniforms are requested to be in their uniforms. The rest are requested to be in formals.

